

ATTENDING BOTH NIC AND UI

Starting the Process

The University of Idaho offers bachelor's degrees in Coeur d'Alene in partnership with North Idaho College. Lower division courses are offered through NIC, and upper division courses are through UI Coeur d'Alene (in-person or distance education).

Step 1: Apply for Admission

If you plan to enroll in both NIC and UI courses, you'll need to apply for admission at both institutions. You must be degree seeking at UI to be considered for financial aid.

NIC: www.nic.edu/admissions

UI: www.uidaho.edu/apply

Step 2: Submit the FAFSA

You can only receive financial aid through one institution for your degree. If you are degree seeking at UI, use the UI School Code below.

FAFSA: www.studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa

UI School Code: 001626

After Admission

Step 3: Register for Classes

NIC: Your first semester at NIC, you must meet with an NIC advisor to plan your courses.

UI: You must meet with your advisor every semester before registering for classes.

Step 4: Complete the Consortium Agreement Form

Once you are a UI student and enroll in one or two classes at another institution such as NIC, you must complete the Consortium Agreement form each semester. See the Form and Instructions
The NIC staff in Cardinal Central can assist you in getting a signature from a Financial Aid Advisor.

Step 5: Pay Your Fees

Students enrolled at both NIC and UI are responsible for payment of all fees to both institutions each semester. If financial aid at either institution is insufficient and there is a remaining balance, the student is responsible for paying that balance.

IMPORTANT: When UI is the primary institution, financial aid is subject to adjustment based on total semester enrollment, institutional enrollment, institutional costs, host institution costs, and federal eligibility criteria. UI students seeking their first bachelor's degree must maintain 12+ credits each fall/spring semester for maximum eligibility of their UI financial aid.
