ADJUDICATORS AND CLINICIANS

BUDDY CHILDERS

Trumpet—Hollywood studio musician has played in over 50 bands including Stan Kenton, Woody Herman, Count Basie, Maynard Ferguson, Akiyoshi/Tabackin Big Band and is currently a clinician for Yamaha. He is one of the greatest JAZZ lead trumpet players in the world.

BARNEY McCLURE

JAZZ Piano—has performed with Blue Mitchell, Milt Jackson, Buddy Tate, Harry Edison and many others. He currently teaches Improvisation and Jazz History at Peninsula College and is the mayor of Port Townsend, Washington.

JAN STENTZ

—is a Vocalist from the Northwest and has recently recorded a set of instructional tapes on vocal improvisation and scat singing. She performs with the Barney McClure quartet.

ELLA FITZGERALD

Known as the Queen of JAZZ—Ella is greeted enthusiastically by music lovers everywhere. As a singer of popular songs, she is supreme in her field. She has literally perfect intonation and the best equipped voice to ever grace the jazz scene. She's recorded over 150 albums and sold over 40 million copies. Ella now has to her name an incredible eleven Grammys. She is truly loved in countries all over the world.

GEORGE SHEARING with BRIAN TORFF, Bass

It is love at first touch for George Shearing and Brian Torff. This JAZZ Duo is one of the greatest music performances in the twentieth century.

KIRBY SHAW

Internationally known and respected, Kirby Shaw is in constant demand as a clinician in the jazz/show choir movement. Although currently an artist in residence at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado, Dr. Shaw formally taught at College of Siskiyous in Weed, California, where he established one of the first jazz choir programs in the state. Equally skilled in instrumental and vocal music, Dr. Shaw has degrees in Music Education, Choral Composition, and Choral Conducting.
