I am delighted to welcome each of you to the 20th annual Lionel Hampton-Chevron Jazz Festival. I hope the rich variety of performances will provide you with a deeper appreciation of 'America's Music.'

As the festival has grown over the years, we have observed a greater number of featured professionals and participating schools. This is no exception. Many individuals and groups of exceptional talent are being featured.

I extend my sincere appreciation to the Chevron Oil Company and to a truly great friend of the University of Idaho, Mr. Lionel Hampton. Through their kindness and continued support, the festival has grown to one of great distinction. We are indebted to their generosity.

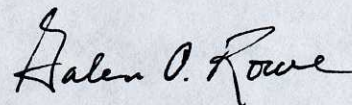

Best wishes to all participants and teachers and to those individuals who worked so diligently to make Jazz '87 a success.

Have a memorable weekend!

Richard D. Gibb
President, University of Idaho

On behalf of the College of Letters and Science I take pleasure in welcoming audience and participants to the University of Idaho's Lionel Hampton Chevron Jazz Festival. I especially greet and thank the many high school musicians who are here to celebrate with us the great music of jazz. We hope that you are enjoying the festival as much as we are and that you will return to our campus, perhaps as University of Idaho students, as soon as you can.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO JAZZ FESTIVAL Rules Summary

Ensemble Structure

Instrumental Jazz Ensemble Division - The instrumental jazz ensembles should consist of at least 10, and not more than 24 players. These groups must perform jazz, not rock.

Vocal Jazz Ensemble Division - Vocal jazz ensembles should consist of at least 10, and not more than 24 vocalists. Up to six additional instrumentalists (who do not sing with the group) may be used. Maximum entry: 24 vocalists and 6 instrumentalists.

Vocal Combo Division and Instrumental Combo Division - Combos may enter if there are 9 or less players in the group. These groups must perform jazz, not rock.

Soloist Division - This division will be open to vocal and instrumental soloists. Each soloist will be responsible for his or her own rhythm section.

Performing Standards - Any group not following these regulations will be disqualified.

1. All groups will perform three charts, including one up-tempo and one ballad style chart; however, if you use a chart that has an extensive portion of each of the tempo classifications rather than separate up-tempo and ballad charts, you are only required to perform two charts (in order to stay within the time limit).
2. Each group entered will have six different charts prepared. One of the charts to be performed by the group will be randomly chosen by the director by throwing a dice over the shoulder.
3. The six charts must be listed on a sheet of paper and given to the person in charge at each performance location.
4. The randomly chosen chart may be programmed by the director.
5. Combos will be required to follow Rule 1 of Performing Standards but do not need to have six charts prepared as per rules 2 through 4.
6. There is a time limit of 20 minutes for each performing group, which includes set-up time, performance, and getting off the stage area. Groups going over the time limit will be disqualified from the final competition.

Sight Reading

There will be sight reading for all competing groups with the exception of combos in the Jazz 1987 Festival. The rating will not affect the outcome of the regular performance. There will be separate awards for sight reading.

Competition

Three outstanding ensembles will be chosen from each class of competition. The top group from each class will perform at the conclusion of their respective day's competition. In the event of a tie, both groups will perform on the evening concert at which time the judges will make their final decision.

(Schools wishing to enter more than one large group in the festival may do so and may enter the second group one classification lower than the normal status. Any school may compete in a higher size classification if the director so desires.)
