

Thank you for your interest in the McCall Field Campus and McCall Outdoor Science School (MOSS). As Idaho's ONLY publicly operated K12 outdoor school, MOSS offers a one-of-a-kind learning experience for youth, graduate students, teachers and the community. When there are no MOSS Programs occurring, the McCall Field Campus may be available for your educational event. Contact our Campus Business Operations & Registration Manager (sachaj@uidaho.edu) today to see if your event fits with our mission!

LODGING INFORMATION

Bunkhouse Unit:

$115/night

Our 14 bunkhouse units sleep up to 8 people on 4 bunk sets, with a shared restroom nearby.

Osprey & Raven:

$275/night

Osprey & Raven each sleep up to 20 people on 10 bunk sets, with a shared restroom nearby.

Cabin Unit (two-night minimum):

$135/night

Our 4 cabin units sleep up to 4 people on 1 double bed and 1 bunk set. There is a private bathroom, a refrigerator and a sink. Cabins may be available in June and July only.

Yurt Unit (two-night minimum):

$85/night

Our 5 yurt units sleep up to 4 people on either 2 bunk sets or a bunk set and a double bed. There is a small refrigerator and a shared restroom nearby. Yurts may be available in June and July only.

Meeting Space:

$500/day for non-UI groups & $250/day for UI groups

The Lake Yurt has space for up to 20 people, the Rose Yurt up to 25 and the Classroom up to 60. We have found that ideal adult occupancy on Lake & Rose is closer to 15 and 30 in the Classroom.

Linens: Bring your own bedding, linens and toiletries.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

DEPOSIT: The deposit is payment in full for the lodging portion of the first night of your reservation and is applied to the final bill. All deposits are non-refundable and non-transferable.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Deposits are non-refundable and non-transferable. You can cancel or amend your reservation at any time before 4 p.m. local time of the business day prior to your arrival. After 4 p.m. of the prior business day, you will be held responsible for payment in full, no exceptions. When changing your reservation, please let us know as soon as possible, ideally more than 14 days prior to arrival.

FACILITIES USE AGREEMENT & CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE:

We are required to do a Facilities Use Agreement (FUA) with all groups. When we send you a confirmation letter, you will also receive a FUA. Please read, sign, and return the agreement within 7 days. The FUA requires proof of general liability and, in most cases, worker's compensation. If your event includes minors, the UI also requires proof of sexual abuse and molestation coverage.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- Base meal rates? Our base food service rate is $684/day. Every eater above 18 will be charged per meal or $38/day.
- Mealtimes and details? Discuss mealtimes upon booking. Meals are 30 minutes long. Arrive during the first 10 minutes of the meal. Another group may be scheduled 30 minutes after you.
- Do you accommodate dietary preferences? We do our best to accommodate individual meal needs. There are some allergies and preferences that we are not able to adjust for. Please communicate dietary needs prior to arrival so we can plan for them.
- Can I use the kitchen? No. The kitchen is for McCall Field Campus faculty and staff use only.
- Nut free campus? We are not a certified nut free campus; however, we are nut reduced. This means that we do not serve nuts in our food service. As a guest of our campus, please leave your nuts at home. Sunbutter is a terrific substitute for a nut butter and jelly sandwich!
- Do I have to eat MOSS food? No. We do not have guest cooking facilities.
- Can I cook on my camp stove? Yes, on the Dining Lodge deck only. Be prepared to meet all your cooking needs including refrigeration and dishes. Do not store food in your accommodations.
- Will I be charged if people in my group decide not to eat a certain meal? After 4 p.m. on the business day prior to your arrival, you will be responsible for payment in full, even if plans change.
- What is the alcohol & tobacco policy? Alcohol* and tobacco products are not allowed at the McCall Field Campus. *You can go through the alcohol permitting process with the UI Auxiliary Services Department. Ask Betsy (bbooth@uidaho.edu), our Food Services Manager, for further details.
- Room keys? We do not provide accommodation or meeting space keys.
- Can I have a campfire? Do I have to bring my own wood? Campfires are permitted in the summer – depending on local fire restrictions – and in designated areas. Put the fire out completely before leaving the area. We do not provide wood. Ponderosa State Park and several local stores sell wood.
- Can I bring my dog, cat, ferret or parrot? No guest pets allowed.
- How should we pay? Please make one payment per group within 14 days of departure.
- Who cleans my room and our group meeting space? We would love your help tidying up the accommodations and meeting spaces you used. Take out the trash & recycling, sweep the floor, wipe down surfaces, etc. Any little bit helps. Thank you!
- Do the accommodations have heat? Yes, all our buildings have a heat source.
- What should I bring? Bring your own bedding, linens and toiletries; a flashlight; and layers and wind/rain gear are suggested. MOSS is a simple, rustic facility. Be prepared to take care to your level of comfort.
- Is there a fee for using the dock? No. Our dock and lakefront are freely available to all our guests.
- Can I bring my ATV/Snowmobile? Where do I park my trailer? No. ATVs, dirt bikes, snowmobiles and all similar motorized vehicles are not permitted on campus or in the Park. The City has trailer parking behind Gravity Sports -- about 1 mile away.
- Is there Internet access? WiFi is currently available for guest use. This service is provided at the discretion of MOSS and is not guaranteed as part of the services provided. You will not be reimbursed if WiFi is not available during your stay, whether due to service outages or changes in University Internet policy. Do not touch or tamper with any of the wireless equipment present on campus. Report all outages to the main office.

- Is your facility accessible for wheelchairs? The rustic nature of our facility provides certain challenges for guests using wheelchairs. We strongly encourage prospective guests to call our Business Operations Manager to discuss accessibility before making a reservation..
- What level of personal service can I expect? The McCall Field Campus is a rustic, limited service rental facility, much like a state park campground. We do our very best to accommodate guest needs given our resources. We do not guarantee the level of service one might expect at a large hotel or conference facility. Guests can expect clean accommodations, delicious food service, a self-check-in and overall self-reliance.
- What level of seminar/workshop support can I expect? Please bring your own supplies right down to tape, pencils, dry erase markers, flip chart paper, etc. If the main office is open (no regular weekend hours), you can purchase copies — $0.10 a black and white copy and $0.25 a color copy.
- Can I rent the whole campus? You can rent the whole campus for exclusive use with two disclaimers: 1) we may have staff living on campus during the time of your reservation, and 2) during fire season USFS fire crews will be on campus. Full campus rentals include all available accommodations and meeting spaces.
- State of Idaho Firearms on campus policy:
 - Authorized permit holders are allowed by Idaho law and University of Idaho policy to carry concealed firearms at the McCall Field Campus except for housing units.
 - Authorized permit holders are required by University policy to keep their firearms concealed, maintaining control of their firearm on or about their person. University policy prohibits storage of firearms in vehicles on University property.
 - The UIMFC cannot store firearms for any visitor.
 - While the McCall Field Campus complies with Idaho law and UI policy, it is not possible for authorized permit holders to exercise the concealed carry right and perform as a MOSS chaperone or visit overnight in other capacities.
 - For questions concerning this policy, please refer to the University of Idaho Administrative Procedures Manual 95.12 - Firearms or contact the Office of Public Safety and Security: www.uidaho.edu/public-safety-and-security; e-mail: campus-security@uidaho.edu.
