4-H Club Goals for the Year

At the beginning of the year, the program planning committee composed of the club officers and advisors (usually the Organizational Leader) should plan for the club year, set annual goals for the year, and plan for each meeting, taking into account the differing needs of all members. These goals should be presented to the club for approval. When the goals are approved, you, as secretary should check them in the spaces below. At the end of the year, the leader, the president and you should check the goals that have been met and submit the secretary's record to the county Extension Educator by October 1.

4-H Club Annual Plan of Meetings and Activities

4-H Club Officers and Advisors should meet at the beginning of the year and before each club meeting to plan club activities and events and set the business agenda, the program and the recreational activities. The most effective club meetings are those that run a maximum of 60-90 minutes and consist of three segments: recreation and song (15-20 minutes), club business (20-30 minutes), and program (no longer than 30 minutes). The meeting may be concluded with refreshments. This meeting sequence should be arranged to meet the needs of members, program guests, or club preference. Use this form and your county 4-H calendar of events to organize your club meetings and your annual plan. It is considered part of the Secretary's Book. See suggested plan on page five.

4-H Club Meeting Agenda

A well planned meeting is like a well planned trip. When the proper preparations have been made and road maps are used, you will get where you want to go. Each 4-H Club meeting should be planned jointly by the leader and club officers. Minutes of the previous meeting should be reviewed and any unfinished business put on the agenda. New business, announcements and plans for the next meeting should also be put on the agenda. As your club officers and leader prepare for each meeting, they may wish to follow this outline or agenda. Make additional copies of this page as needed.

4-H Club Leadership Team

Club officers are elected to plan and conduct the club meetings. Depending on the size of the club, some officers' duties can be split between several 4-H members. For example, there could be a vice-president for programs, and a vice-president for membership; a recording secretary (minutes), a correspondence secretary (letters) and an attendance secretary (roll call). Before the club year begins, the officer advisor and the officers meet together to complete the following tasks.

- ~ Review the duties of each officer
- ~ Review goals set by the club for membership, programs, and community service.
- ~ Develop a year-long club program calendar
- ~ Plan the club budget

Jr./Teen leaders:

Much of the work conducted by 4-H Clubs is best accomplished by committees. Committees allow more members the opportunity to assume responsibility and leadership. Committees encourage members to work together toward accomplishing club goals with the guidance of an adult or teen leader. 4-H Clubs form committees to plan programs, organize club events, raise funds and recruit members. Committee members volunteer or are appointed by the club president. The president may appoint members to committees to insure that all members have the opportunity to serve each year. All committees should have a 4-H leader or teen leader serving as coach and advisor to the group. Five to seven is a good number of members for a committee.

Summary of 4-H Club Activities

Explain the planned program or workshop activities your club participated in this year.

Community Service-Learning: One of the main focus areas of 4-H clubs is to plan and complete specific projects to improve the community. The Community Service Learning committee will find out what the club can do to help the community and help plan and organize the project. Gather ideas from parents, leaders, other 4-H members, local agencies as well as by brainstorming. Present several ideas to the club. Once the club members have decided on a service-learning project, the committee plans the details for accomplishing it, arranges for publicity and also reports back to the club
